NAMB Renews Strategic Alliance with Lion Inc.

November 21, 2001—NAMB has renewed its strategic alliance with LION Inc. Under the alliance, LION Inc. offers its NAMB Advantage program, a special lineup of services that provide a complete online origination solution to members at members-only prices.

The NAMB Advantage program offers members four distinct services: a Mortgage 101.com directory listing (designed to increase website traffic), a Mortgage Dot Com personalized website (includes free domain name registration) with region-specific rates and fees supplied, a subscription to the LION Pro subscription database, and access to LION's eMortgageCenter and 1003 Manager services.

While these services normally sell for $125 per month, NAMB members receive a special price of $75 per month. Enrollment in the program requires no set-up fees or long-term commitment. For additional information on the program, call (800) 786-8083 or sign up online at www.lioninc.com/namb_advantage.

NAMB's strategic alliances provide members with superior benefits and services at discount prices not available through other sources. Though a strategic alliance has been formed with LION Inc., it is not an exclusive endorsement of the company or their products or services.
